From the Pastor:

This weekend, I would like to focus only on the Gospel which is based on the beautiful prayer of “Our Father” followed by persistence and perseverance in prayers.

Gospel explanation: Luke’s version and Matthew’s version: Matthew’s version of the Lord’s Prayer is given in the context of the Sermon on the Mount as part of Jesus’ teaching on how to pray, while Luke’s version is set in one of those occasions just after our Lord had been at prayer. Luke’s version of the Lord’s Prayer is shorter than the more familiar version found in Matthew’s Gospel. However, it teaches us all we need to know about how to pray and what to pray for. It has only five petitions while Mathew adds two more (“Your will be done...” and “deliver us from the evil one.”) The first two petitions have to do with praise and worship of God, while the next three petitions present to Him our needs – daily bread, forgiveness and protection against the evil one. The Church uses the longer form of the Lord’s Prayer.

The structure of the Our Father: The prayer consists of two parts. In the first part, we praise and worship God and express our ardent desire for His rule in human hearts, enabling us to do His will in the most perfect way. In the second part we present our needs before God our Father with filial love and trusting Faith. We offer before God our present (daily bread), our past (forgiveness of sins) and our future (protection against temptations). By this prayer we also invite the Trinitarian God into our lives: God the Father, the Creator and Provider, by asking for daily bread; God the Son, Jesus, our Savior, by requesting forgiveness of our sins; and God the Holy Spirit by asking for deliverance from temptations (“the final test.”).

Prayer: persistent and persevering: In the second part of today’s Gospel, by presenting the parable of a friend in need, Jesus emphasizes our need for persistent and persevering prayer, acknowledging our total dependence on God. In the ancient Hebrew world, hospitality was the essence of one’s goodness. To welcome a visitor without food and drink was unthinkable. A traveler who was traveling in the evening to avoid the heat of the afternoon, might well arrive late at night. But the villagers used to go to bed early, as they had no electricity. So, in this parable, when a man received unexpected guests late at night and found his cupboard bare, he went to his neighbor and woke him in order to borrow a loaf of bread. In those days, people generally slept in one room, the children bedded down with the adults. Rising to answer the door would disrupt the whole family and hence the neighbor was reluctant to get up. Finally, however, because of the persistence of his guest, he got up and gave bread to his neighbor. This parable does not mean that God is a reluctant giver. Rather it stresses the necessity of our persisting in prayer as the expression of our total dependence on God. Persevering in prayer helps us to purify our prayer, to make clear to ourselves our values and hopes, and to lead us to ask for what is really in our very best interests. St. Paul tells us to “pray without ceasing”
 (Source: Fr. Anthony Kadavil)

Some thoughts on Prayer: “The man who thinks only of himself says the prayer of petition. He who thinks of his neighbor says the prayers of intercession. He who thinks only of loving and serving God says prayers of abandonment to God’s will, and that is the prayer of the saints” (Fulton J. Sheen) Begin the day with prayer and make it so soulful that it may remain with you until the evening. Close the day with prayer so that you may have a peaceful night free from dreams and nightmares. Do not worry about form of prayer. Let it be any form; it should be such as can put you in communion with the divine. Only whatever be the form, let not the spirit wander while the words of prayer run out of your mouth (Mahatma Gandhi) St. John Mary Vianney’s advice to a couple who asked him how to pray: “Spend three minutes praising and thanking God for all you have. Spend three minutes asking God’s pardon for your sins and presenting your needs before Him. Spend three minutes reading the Bible and listening to God in silence. And do this every day.”

Daily prayer: As our body needs daily nourishment and so also our soul needs spiritual nourishment. Because we are human beings made of body and soul and are spirit in matter. Besides saying grace before meals, we need to start doing daily prayers individually or collectively for special blessings of peace and harmony in our families. I have instructed our school kids to pray like this. On getting up from sleep, ‘sit up on your bed, make the sign of the cross say ‘good morning’ to Jesus and then one “Our Father” and conclude with the sign of the cross. Before going to sleep, ‘sit up on your bed and make the sign of the cross and say one ‘Hail Mary’ and conclude with the sign of the cross and say good night to Blessed Mother and Jesus. Parents/guardians can help them out but then, they would have to set up a model as they are the first teachers in their home school.

Appreciation: In response to my appeal at last weekend Masses for maintaining silence in the church before and after Mass has been received well and responded positively. I appreciate you all for your kind gesture of cooperation in our collective church discipline. After Saturday Mass, an active member of our parish met with me and said that we need to discourage visitation in the church on funerals which can be done in the hall of Knights of Columbus or in the funeral home. Eldon started doing it in the funeral home after it has been told to the funeral home people. It’s been told to them if anyone so desires visitation in the church then strict silence has to be maintained and so now no one opts for it.
