From the Pastor: Scripture lessons summarized: (18th Sunday) The first reading, taken from Ecclesiastes, reminds us that the greedy acquisition and the selfish hoarding of goods are useless because when the hoarder dies, he goes to eternity empty-handed, and his heir gains, and perhaps squanders, his riches. In the Responsorial Psalm (Ps 90), the Psalmist challenges us to listen to God and allow Him to soften our hearts that we may share our blessings with others. The Psalm Response urges, “If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts” (Ps 95:8), while the verses remind us that human life passes swiftly on earth, and must end in death and the return of the body dust. In the second reading, Paul directs our attention to lasting Heavenly treasures and warns that greed for wealth and influence is idolatry. He advises the Colossians, “Put to death, your parts that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry” (Col 3:5). In today’s Gospel, Jesus, telling the parable of the foolish rich man, warns the disputing brothers, and us, against all types of greed, because greed takes our life’s focus away from God and away from serving and loving Him in other people. Jesus says God called the greedy rich man a fool because the man thought he would not die soon and that he was not accountable for his riches. He forgot that his wealth had been lent to him by God for sharing with the needy. Jesus also warns us that our eternal life does not consist of earthly possessions (Lk 12:15), so we should share our possessions to gain eternal life.

Life messages: 1) we are invited to share our blessings with others. The parable of the rich fool gives us a warning as well as an invitation. It reminds us that our possessions are merely lent to us by God, and that we are accountable for their use. We must be generous in sharing our time, our treasure, and our talents in Christian stewardship. Even if we are poor financially, we may be blessed with intelligence, good will, a sense of humor or the ability to console, encourage, inspire and support and help others. God expects us to give our thanks to Him for all these blessings by sharing them with others for His glory. The Old Testament Scriptures are clear about tithing – giving 10% of our income for God’s cause and for helping the needy. God never allows tithers to regret their generosity. (Fr. Anthony K)

The paradox of today: Today we have higher buildings and wider highways, but shorter tempers and narrower points of view. We have bigger houses, but smaller families. We spend more but enjoy less; we have more medicines but less health; we have much more food, but less nutrition. We have multiplied our possessions but reduced our values. We have finer houses, but more broken homes. We reached the Moon and came back, but we find it troublesome to cross our own street and meet our neighbors. We have increased our possessions, but we have reduced our values; Many have higher incomes, but lower morals. We have more quantity, but are short on quality, We have learned to make a living, but not how to live. We have added years to life, but not life to years. Many have more leisure, but less good fun. We can travel long distances, but have trouble crossing the streets! (Anonymous)

Feast of Assumption of Blessed Mother: As announced at last weekend Masses, it is a holy day of obligation and so there will be Holy Masses offered on August 14, Wednesday at 7 pm and on August 15, Thursday at 8 am.

Disaster Assistance: A couple of days ago, two people from the State showed up in the Parish office at Eldon giving a flyer regarding Disaster Assistance offered by the State assisted by Federal funding. We are giving it a bulletin insert for you all to pass the information around. It would be a wonderful service we could render to those people who have been impacted by tornado or flooding still may not have received the necessary assistance.

A fund raiser for Mary’s Meal: Perhaps you are aware of the wonderful program feeding hundreds and thousands of school going kids in Asian and African Countries. A group of volunteers in and around Jefferson City has organized a musical night called Nashville Band High South to be held at Canterbury Hill Winery in Holts Summit on August 8, Thursday 6.00 – 9.00 pm so as to raise money in support of the said cause. You will find more details in the flyer given with bulletin this weekend.

We need volunteers: With a team of dedicated volunteers, we have been running PSR program for our kids in our Parish and it has been run very well with the coordinated efforts of Carol Plank and Colleen Abbot. For some reason, some of our good teachers are not able to fill in this year and so we need teachers for the 7th, 8th, and 10th grades. We also need one volunteer to assist the confirmation team. Hence, I am requesting those who will be able to take up teaching in the said classes and help out our parish program. We all know that it is a collective effort of dedicated volunteers and parents that help our kids grow strong in Faith in the secular environment. For further information, please contact Carol Plank.

Donation is solicited: Considering the pressing need of the time and request by many parents, we are intending to introduce Chromebook in our school curriculum this year for the upper grades. And so, we would require 25 sets of Chromebook and the cost of which will be $342.99 x 25 = $8574.75. I do know that we are blessed to have many generous donors in our Parish and for them our school means a lot. Therefore, I take courage to make an appeal to all probable donors to come forward and contribute toward the noble cause of our school intending to provide modern technology - based education for our kids. For further information, please contact Jake, the Principal.

School van and increase in numbers: We are also exploring a possibility of getting a school van to minimize the difficulties of our school parents who do send their kids to our school and to those intending to send. Alongside, I do look forward to your kind cooperation to bring up our school in different fields for which we need numbers. I do know we have got enough kids who can very well fill up the empty space in our school. Here is where, I once again make an appeal to those parents whose kids could be in our school consider prayerfully sending their kids to our school for the overall education and growth of God-given children and their future in the secularized world of today.
