Easter Sunday Prayer

Lord God,
You loved this world so much that you gave your one and only Son, that we might be called your children too. Lord, help us to live in the gladness and grace of Easter Sunday, everyday. Let us have hearts of thankfulness for your sacrifice. Let us have eyes that look upon your grace and rejoice in our salvation. Help us to walk in that mighty grace and tell your good news to the world. All for your glory do we pray, Lord, Amen.

Hope you have a Blessed Easter!

FROM THE PASTOR:

Easter Sunday

Happy Easter everyone! Today the psalmist rightly stated: "This is the day the Lord has made let us rejoice and be glad in it "[psalm 118:24]. With the crises the world is facing today, the resurrection of Christ once again opens our eyes to the love that is outrageous, unconditional. We rejoice and are glad because what was lost has been found, what was lacking has been recovered.

The resurrection tells us something about Jesus, but it also tells us something about the God whom we encounter in the person of Jesus. The God we know in Jesus Christ is a God who is love, a love that is more powerful than our sin, a love that can triumph over death, a love that seeks to share itself with us so that we too can triumph over sin and death. I think this is the message of Easter that we are called to share.

It's that kind of love we celebrate this day. Love which has a power the world had never seen. God loves us so much that he immersed himself in our world, became one of us, and showed us what an authentic, faithful life truly looks like. And so, we shout, alleluia!

This was the sign that Jesus had done what only God could do-break the power of sin and death. It is from this event that all our beliefs about Jesus flow: that he is "God from God, light from light, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father." All of these phrases are different ways of affirming that the resurrection has revealed Jesus as the Lord of life and death.

So, whatever troubles we are facing today under this crisis, whatever crosses we are carrying, whatever is getting us down, remember it is not the end of the story. There is still hope!

Better Together Pastoral Planning process

The Diocesan Pastoral Council met last Saturday and asked that the timeline for the discernment of parish pastoral plans be kept as much as possible. Small groups may meet virtually through video or tele-conferencing and submit discernment reports online, which will be forwarded to their proper pastor. The DPC also recommends a fifth week of discernment be added after the completion of the small group session on Parishes as Centers of Mercy. The fifth week would be used to assess the proposals the group has already made, and to highlight the more important two-four proposals they recommend. The deadline for small group submissions to parish councils is May 1; the deadline for parish pastoral plans being submitted to the chancery is July 1. Please contact LeAnn Korsmeyer if you have questions.

Our Lady of the Snows School News:

In a letter dated March 31, Interim Superintendent Kenya Fuemmeler announced that diocesan schools will abide by a decree issued by Bishop W. Shawn McKnight and remain closed through April 30, with the possibility of finishing the school year online.

With a formal decree suspending the public celebration of the liturgy and devotions, our schools must remain closed. Schools within the Diocese of Jefferson City must remain closed until April 30, 2020. The original plan was to evaluate these situations based on local county guidance and in consultation with the local public school. We are now working to keep ourselves within the recommendations of our federal government. This is an unprecedented situation with widespread implications. If schools can safely return to their physical campuses after April 30, then they should be expected to return through their normal calendar. If schools cannot safely return to their physical campuses until April 30, they should continue educating students through May 15, 2020.
