

School News:

Thank you to Lorie Kiso, Kelly Angerer, and to the employees of the Three Rivers Electric Cooperative for their very generous donation of school supplies for the children of Our Lady of the Snows School. These supplies will be used for individual student needs, for art classes, for writing classes, and as classroom supplies for the students and teachers.

There will be NO SCHOOL on Monday, Sept. 6, in observance of Labor Day.

This week's essay-"Our Lady of the Snows is the heart and soul of Mary's Home. We are in the very center of the town of Mary's Home. It is our duty and responsibility to keep this town alive and a living part of our faith. We should help others as much as we can. Mary's Home is the home of my church and my school. I love this place very much, and I wouldn't trade it for the world. Thank you, Mary's Home!" by Lane M., Grade 6
